WELCOME TO TRAM SUNDAY

Fleetwood Festival of Transport – Tram Sunday returns in 2019 with its packed programme of free entertainment, activities and fun, catering for all age groups. It’s much more than a transport festival and classic vehicle show, with stalls and rides, arts activities and outstanding performances.

Attracting staggering numbers to the town every year the Festival is a Fleetwood tradition and welcomes visitors from far and wide.

Tram Sunday has not one but two parades – the first Civic Parade at 11.00am sets off from Fisherman’s Walk/Ash St and includes vehicles of many types, the parade proceeds down Lord St. towards North Albert St. and on towards the North Euston Hotel.

The SpareParts Arts Parade starts at 3pm (see pages 18-19 for route) and will be packed with crazy contraptions and flying machines created by local community groups and schoolchildren performing with House of Wingz alongside international artists. It’s not too late to get involved – join in with our workshops (page 13) and make something for the parade.

You can’t help but be impressed by the lovingly cared for classic motors – and of course our beloved heritage trams. See pages 8-10 for more information on just a small selection of vehicles you can expect to see. Look out for the special Hillman Imp Panda Police Car!

Thanks once again go to our main sponsor Chris Allen Garages (Ford and Mazda), to all the businesses in the programme and to all the volunteers who help throughout the year.
In the 1930s a new manager took over at Blackpool Corporation Transport, Walter Luff, and he decided that the fleet of trams that he had inherited was too varied, old and outdated for such a vibrant, popular seaside town. So in 1933 he began a full fleet renewal that would, over the next five years, give Blackpool 116 of the most modern, streamlined and efficient tramcars in the world and a fleet that would form the backbone of the system for nearly 80 years!

‘BALLOON’ TRAMCAR No. 700:
Purple and White “Flexity” liveried Double Decker
The 26 new double deckers had two variations, open toppers and enclosed. Nicknamed by the staff, due to their somewhat bloated appearance, they are still known as ‘balloons’ to this day. 700 was the prototype and built as an open topper for the summer seasons, but during the Second World War she was rebuilt to match the other cars that had been delivered as fully enclosed trams.

TRAMCAR NO. 680:
Single Decker Green & Cream Liveried
Car 680 started life as a Brush Railcoach, similar to car 621. In the late 1950’s, when Blackpool’s tramway looked like it might close, ideas were sought to allow Car 680 and other trams to survive. One plan was to hitch trams together with one tram pulling another so only one driver was required. 680 last ran as a “Twin Car” in 1972 when her trailer became a staff room but then was scrapped in the 1980’s.

TRAMCAR NO. 621:
Single Decker Green & Cream Liveried
No. 621 was the first of its class, built in 1937 supplied by the Brush Electrical Engineering Company of Loughborough as one of 20 single deck streamlined rail coaches that formed part of Luff’s modernisation plan and followed on from 45 similar trams built by English Electric. This class of 20 quickly became commonly known as the ‘Brush cars’, to differentiate them from the English Electric fleet. Following essential conservation work, 621 was returned to an approximation of its original livery for its 80th birthday in 2017 and operated for the first time that year on the upgraded tramway.
I'd like to offer my congratulations to all those who make the Fleetwood Festival of Transport the amazing event it is.

I'm here to stand up for the people of Fleetwood, so if there's any way I can help, please do get in touch:

CAR CLUBS

BLACKPOOL & FYLDE LAND ROVER CLUB

Formed in March 2017 by a group of local Land Rover enthusiasts, the club’s aim is to bring local enthusiasts and their families together to share knowledge and the love of their motors.

The club attracts many local enthusiasts who own various Land Rovers ranging from Series Land Rovers through to current models.

This year’s line up from the Club features a Series 1 manufactured in 1956 owned by a local Fleetwood resident. Also on the stand are several Land Rover Defenders and a Freelander 1, the smallest of the Land Rover range, and both no longer produced. The ever popular Discovery and Range Rover can also be seen.

FOCUS NORTHWEST OWNERS CLUB

The Northwest’s leading Ford Focus car club welcomes everyone, whether it be a mk1 focus or a brand new mk4 focus, highly modified or a completely standard family car, everyone is welcome.

The club has been running for around four years and members attend a wide variety of events and shows across the Northwest as well as attending and organising charity events with their stunning cars for everyone to have a look around.

They love working alongside local Northwest companies and have a wide variety of club sponsors, all of which offer members discounts when purchasing a service or products from them.

TAMESIDE CAR COLLECTORS

Tameside Car Collectors started out as a group of friends with an equal interest in the preservation of classic and vintage cars.

The club was formed when the ‘Museum of Museums’ was opened in Manchester, at the Trafford Centre and the group had the great honour of displaying some of their cars within the Museum for the general public to view and enjoy.

The club hosts and attends events and shows throughout the year and can be found at all of the major shows throughout the Northwest.

Their members’ cars range from the 1920’s up to 1990’s, so owning a classic isn’t a prerequisite of becoming a member.
LOOK OUT FOR:

1964 HILLMAN IMP DELUXE

Over 300 Hillman Imps were supplied to police forces throughout the country in an attempt to improve the use of manpower and to improve police mobility. In March 1967 the first six standard Imps in Capri Blue were prepared and painted to the ‘Panda’ paint scheme and the cars were run-in and delivered to the Newton Abbot Division of the Devon and Cornwall Constabulary - the area specially selected for the Imps to patrol.

On patrol, the cars carried equipment in the form of shovels, police signs, and fire extinguishers. This test improved mobility which helped crime detection. During the test, the Imps proved to be reliable and economical.

SpareParts Festivals also work with schools and local communities to provide opportunities to get involved in artist-led workshops and appear in its arts parades.

In Fleetwood this year over 150 local people will take part in the SpareParts Arts Parade as it makes its way through the town centre in a cavalcade of colour and creativity.

From geese bikes to blinged up prams, in-flight mobility scooters to 10ft puppets – Fleetwood has them all and more.

See if you can spot these Fleetwood specialities along with all our SpareParts artists...

GET INVOLVED ON THE DAY WITH OUR ART WORKSHOPS:

Henna workshop
Opposite Ash St.
10.30am-2.30pm
Learn more about the ancient art of henna – try out some transport designs and even freestyle!

Mad Max Prams
Lord St. (by alley to Albert St. Car Park) 10.00am-2.00pm
The Mad Max Prams and assorted wasteland accessories will be available for you to create your own post-apocalyptic style: you can become a wasteland warrior too... and it's the best place for alternative selfies! The only new things are the nuts and bolts holding them together!

Rangoli Under Water Workshop
Albert St. Car Park
10.30am-2.30pm
Rangoli is a traditional form of art using coloured sand to decorate floors. Try your hand at under water Rangoli - an innovative version of the dry sand art where the sand actually lies beneath the water and you will be amazed to see its design and clarity.

Poco Loco Drumming Workshop
Opposite Ash St. 12noon-1.00pm
Find your inner Samba rhythm with Poco Loco, watch their demonstration and even join in!
LeftCoast presents Radio Local by Hunt & Darton

This 12 hour radio spectacular will be broadcasting live, straight from the centre of Tram Sunday - for one day only.

Hosted by deadpan duo Hunt & Darton, Radio Local is exactly that: local. It’s built with, by and for local people, telling your stories, sharing your news, playing your jingles.

There are loads of different ways to get involved on the day – it wouldn’t be local without you! Here are just a few ways you can get yourself heard over the airwaves!

NEWS SEGMENT - Hunt & Darton will be out on the street looking for scoops for the regular News update. We want to hear YOUR news - from your new conservatory to your ingrown toenail.

JINGLE MAKING - Head straight into our Jingle Shed - kitted out with the finest instruments available from the Early Learning Centre – and record your own Radio Local jingle to be played throughout the day.

SOAP OPERA - Add the next line to our soap opera script, written en masse by Locals and sure to be award-winning. Hunt & Darton will check in with the growing drama as it unfolds.

PICK A SONG - Tweet us @huntdarton with your song requests and we’ll ask the Local Legend DJ very nicely to squeeze it in somewhere... no promises!

And if the hustle and bustle of Tram Sunday gets too much head on over to our Listening Shed where you can sit back and listen to the sweet sounds of Radio Local.

HOW TO LISTEN:

LIVE on Fylde Coast Radio - www.fyldecoastradio.org and follow @leftcoastuk on social media and be the first to hear the podcast.
FLEETWOOD LIBRARY

SpareParts is returning to its original home in Fleetwood with performances and experiences to delight visitors both big and small alike. Starting at 10am and running right through the day, explore what happens when transport and arts collide. Watch out for our walkabout artists popping up – you never know where they could be. For more information about all our artists please visit sparepartsfestival.co.uk

SPAREPARTS ARTS PARADE
Fleetwood is the home of the original SpareParts Arts Parade and is one of the longest parade routes on our 2019 tour. Starting from Ash St. at 3pm see our international artists, along with over 150 people from the local community come together in a celebration of a great day. Join in with the cavalcade of curiosities, contraptions and musical vehicles designed by artists and local people as it makes its way down Lord St. to the North Euston Hotel.

Start at Ash St.
Time: 3.00pm

BAND AT THE END OF THE WORLD
By Ramshacklicious
Arriving in a cloud of raucous brass-heavy music, on their homemade, flaming and smoking battle-church, the band are convinced that the inevitable end of the world is upon us.

Albert St. Car Park
Time: 12.30pm

CLOUDSCAPES
By Gobbledegook Theatre
Get comfy on giant beanbags and contemplate the clouds whilst listening to a daughter’s journey with her father across Route 66.

North Euston Gardens
Times: 10.30am - 2.30pm

BELLY OF THE WHALE
By Okham’s Razor
Circus meets sculpture with performers, like surfers on a wild sea, riding a giant semi-circular see-saw made of wood and steel which creaks and groans as it transforms from a catapult, a gently rocking cradle, a tunnel, a slide - creating an ever changing land and soundscape.

Albert St. Car Park
Times: 10.45am & 1.30pm
ONE GIANT LEAP
By House of Wingz
A high energy breakin’ and acrobatic space themed dance sequence that explores the aspirations of a little girl who wants to land on the moon.

Opposite Ash St.
Times: 10.35am & 12.15pm

HIGH FLYERS
By Apus Productions
Come and see an early flying machine with touches of Mad Max and Leonardo da Vinci for good measure. This underworld of crazy contraptions is inspired by 19th century theatre sideshows.

Pop-up performances

ROUTES
By Theatre Témoin
An adventure exploring destinations, journeys and who we meet along the way told using clowning, comedy and large-scale puppetry. Join Routes at one of the following locations and walk with them as the story unfolds to a culmination in North Euston Gardens.

• Corner of North Albert St. and Bold St.
